

Ten Terrific Things to tick off

Take a 'selfie' – go and find a place where you can see Glastonbury Tor. Line up your camera so the Tor is on top of your head! There are good spots for this at Catcott Complex, Ham Wall and Shapwick nature reserves.

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Go Geo-caching
– grab a GPS and try hi-tech treasure hunting across the Avalon Marshes.

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Explore nature reserves on trails and paths and visit hides to watch wildlife in comfort!

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Cycle along traffic-free paths and droves though some of the nature reserves. The Avalon Marshes is a flat landscape with quiet country lanes, perfect for easy bike rides.

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Walk the route of the Sweet Track at Shapwick Heath - it's older than Egypt's pyramids!

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Take in some history – visit Glastonbury Abbey, the Abbot's Fish House at Meare or climb Glastonbury Tor.

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Find the arch at Westhay Moor - walk along the boardwalk and find the heron lurking in the water!

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Do the Discovery Trail at Shapwick Heath - can you find anything hidden in the reeds?

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Visit the Avalon Marshes Centre near Shapwick. There's lots of information about the marshes as well as a café and craft shop. And you can see replica Roman and Saxon buildings being built! Explore the Avalon Marshes website – there are things to do and great family events all year round.
www.avalonmarshes.org

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

Visit The Tribunal in Glastonbury to find out more about ancient lake villages and see a real Iron Age canoe.

DONE IT?
TICK HERE

